

Monitoring transfusion of blood products- Training Quiz

1) True or False: Monitoring of blood product transfusion per the new Treatment Guideline Policy # 8105 applies to adult patients only.

- True
- False

2) You are monitoring a PRBC transfusion when the patient develops a rash and difficulty breathing with wheezes. What is your first action in managing this complication?

- Administer albuterol.
- Administer diphenhydramine.
- Check vital signs.
- Stop the transfusion.

3) True or False: After stopping a transfusion for an adverse reaction you should immediately flush the tubing.

- True
- False

4) True or False: An infusion pump is not indicated for paramedic transfer of a patient with blood products infusing.

- True
- False

5) How would a Paramedic identify fluid overload in their patient receiving blood products?

- Respiratory distress
- Pedal edema
- ALOC
- Decreased blood pressure.