

EMS/Trauma Symposium

Register by May 17 for free trauma care education

Join us for the first annual EMS/Trauma Symposium, hosted by Providence Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital in collaboration with Santa Rosa Junior College.

Learn from guest speakers about the following trauma care topics:

- Overuse & Misuse of Prehospital Interventions – Brian Schmidt, M.D.
- Penetrating Trauma Case Review – Keith White, M.D.
- Neuro Trauma Case Review – Kurtis Birch, M.D.
- Assessing Spinal Injuries in the Pre-Hospital Setting – Quinn Fujii, M.D.
- Orthopedic Trauma Case Review – Payam Tabrizi, M.D.

This free symposium is open to all Coastal Valleys first responders and Providence nurses, trauma registrars and physicians.

4.0 continuing education credits will be issued for EMS and nurses only.

Free breakfast will be offered at this event: burritos, muffins, fruit, yogurt, juice and coffee.

For questions, please email Holly Love, trauma program manager, at Holly.Love@providence.org.
